NOTEBOOK

How to be a less shit male feminist

For all French women's talk of personal freedom and not caring about what others think, they care very much about people's opinion on their weight.

'It's absolutely not OK to be fat in France,' says Laura Bennet, a Londoner who lived in Paris for several years. 'And if you do put on a few pounds people won't hold back from telling you.' The French strain of ruthless honesty Londoner lived Paris for several might be cruel, but there's no denying it's effective. You're far less likely to spot a muffin top wobbling down the Champs-Élysées than down Oxford Street honesty.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE

My Abuser Used My Therapy Notes Against Me During His Trial

I was sexually assaulted as a child. When I took him to court, his defence lawyers used notes from my own counselling sessions to try to discredit me.
