board. It was a huge hit with Dad. The finished product has since found a prominent place in our home, and it never fails to attract the attention of visitors.

on the counter so that they spelled "DAD." As a bonus, my husband was able to enjoy a few hours to himself while we were occupied in the kitchen.

a board game of memories

My kids made a personalized board game that they called On the Road. They fashioned the board after Monopoly, but they put their unique spin on the properties by customizing the board with hotels and people's homes we've stayed at while traveling. They also added favorite cafés where we've shared meals and made memories.

The kids decorated the board, cut out activity cards and hand colored paper money. They laughed a lot as they dreamed up ideas for the penalty cards:

-Ate too many samples at the hotel buffet. Skip a turn.

-You ate all the popcorn at the theater. Pay $25.

-Forgot to close the car topper. Go to jail.

I was proud of them for sticking with it when the project turned into a much longer job than anticipated. Their time was rewarded the minute their dad opened his gift. He loved it.

We still have Monopoly on our game shelf, but it gets passed over every time for the homemade version.

OFF THE SHELF

school book reports

BOOKS OFFER children an imaginative world to explore or historical facts to fascinate. When casual reading becomes a chore through assigned book reports, you may find it hard to motivate your kids to read. Here's how two authors found inspiration to write their books, which are on our list of books for your grade and middle school kids to consider.

"After hiking Chicagoland's forest preserves for years with my kids, I discovered they contain archaeological sites of Illinois tribes. Mystery in Crooked Creek Woods raises awareness about native peoples and the places where we build our homes, ride our bikes and live our lives today. This topic then led me to explore the telling of good stories, the pursuit of the truth and Jesus' command to love our neighbors."

—Amanda Cleary Eastep

"I went canoeing with a friend in Florida, and the primeval beauty of the swamp shook something loose in my imagination. At the same time, I was listening to some of Eugene Peterson's sermons about young David and his 'earthy spirituality.' It felt like a providential mashup: 'The Wilderking Trilogy' started there, with a spiritually attuned boy whose calling required that he not get more 'spiritual,' but earthier, swamplier, even a little wilder."

—Jonathan Rogers
